For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Nervous and General Debility, Impotence, and all Diseases arising from Solitary Habits, or Excessive Indulgence.

THERE are thousands of Young Men, as well as MIDDLE AGED and OLD Men, who are suffering to some extent from the above diseases. Many, perhaps, are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed.

For the benefit of such, we herewith give a few of the most common symptoms, viz: Weakness of the For the benefit of such, we herewith give a few of the most common symptoms, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head and Side, dimness of Sight, Dots and Webs before the Eyes, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Loss of Memory. Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Timidity, etc. For each and all of the above symptoms these remedies will be found a "Sovereign Balm."

These remedies embrace three prescriptions: A box of Pastels, a box of Nervous Tonic Pills, and a box of Virile Tonic Pills, all of which have important offices to perorm, and should be used together in every case. Their superiority over other modes of treatment may be briefly stated as follows, viz:

Messrs. J. N. Harris & Co.:

Gentlemen:—The confidence I have in Perry Davis' Pain Killer as a remedy for Colds. Coughs. Burns Sprains, and Rheumatism, for the cure of which have successfully used it. induces me to cheerfully recommen dits virtues to others.

A few months ago I had recourse to it to destroy a felon; although I had never heard of its being used for that purpose; but having suffered intensely from a former one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pain Killer freels for about fifteen minutes at evening, and repeated the application very briefly the next morning, which entirely destroyed the felon, and increased my confidence in the utility of the remedy.

Yours truly,

Minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

We therefore start out with a verbatim ex- L. S. Marshall, tract from Col. Cochrane's speech, as pub- N. Heffner, lished in the Cincinnati Gazette, which con- L. Hord, tains the gist of the controversy:

"'This is a war which moves toward the protection of our homes, the safety of our families, the continuation of domestic altars and the protection of our firesides. In such a war we are justified, and are bound to resort to every force within our power.

'Shall we not seize the cotton at Beaufort, the munitions of war? And if you would seize their property, open their ports, and even destroy their lives, I ask you whether you would not use their slaves? whether you would not arm their slaves, [great applause,] and carry them in battalions against their [Renewed and tumultuous apmasters? plause.] If necessary to save this Govern-ment, I would plunge their whole country black and white, in one indiscriminate sea o blood, so that we should, in the end, have a Government which would be the vicegerent

"'You have arms in your hands, placed there for the purpose of exterminating an enemy unless he submits to law, order, and the Constitution. If he will not submit, explode every thing that comes in your way; set fire to the cotton; explode the cotton take the slave, and bestow him on the nonslaveholder if you please. [Great applause.]
Do to them as they would do to us. Raise up a party interest against the absent slavehold. Distract their counsels, and if this should not be sufficient, take the slave by the hand. place a musket in it, and in God's name bid him strike for the liberty of the human race." [Immense applause.]

The Louisville Democrat condemned the speech in a very emphatic manner, when the Commonwealth stepped forward in a still more emphatic indorsement of Col. Cochrane's bloody policy, as will appear in the subjoined extract from an article on that subject:

[From the Frankfort Commonwealth, Nov. 18th.] CONFISCATION OF THE SLAVES OF REBELS. The Louisville Democrat is horrified about a recent speech of John Cochrane, of New York, in which he favored the confiscation of the slaves of rebels and the policy of em-ploying them against the armies of Jeff.

The policy indicated by Mr. Cochrane is exactly right, and in accordance with the usages of civilized warfare. We hope to see it adopted by the Government. It should have been at first. Had it been, many lives of loyal citizens would have been saved that were lost through the wishy-washy and anomolus conduct of the Government toward traitors in arms. Since the commencement man falls into the hands of traitors, his life that the General 'would see about i pays the forfeit. The rebels are daily coniscating the property of Union men, and burning and otherwise destroying what they cannot make use of. Yet the Democrat would seem to desire the Government to protect the property of these destroyers, and thus prolong the struggle, while its own adherent must pay the expenses of the war which has been forced upon them, and suffer, un-avenged, the depredations of an organized banditti.

Why should not the slaves of traitors in arms be confiscated to the use of the Government? The Democrat will not deny that slaves are property as clearly so as are mules Is it right and proper to confiscate a mule and put it to hauling transportation? If it is, why is it not equally right and proper to Both are property, and both are employed by the rebels in their attempt to destroy this Government. A traitor has no right to claim the protection of the laws of that country he is ideavoring to destroy. If he succeeds in his designs, the country, together with its laws, must go down. If the country succeeds, traitor must fall. Why then fight him with one hand, and sustain him with the other. The position of the Democrat is both untenable and unreasonable. In the course of an article on the subject,

the Democrat says:

"This proposed descent to the level of the rebels in prosecuting war is a disgrace to the Government." Whatever of disgrace attaches to such a policy would attach to the party inaugurating it. We believe in "fighting the devil with fire." The Democrat would probably employ rose-water and jerky editorials on account the superior respectability of the latter. The rebels employ armed negroes, armed savages they resort to all sorts of base means even to piracy upon the high seas. They poison wells, and when they can—as at Guyandotte—they resort to assassination.

"Let this barbarous rebellion be crushed out. We care not how, so it be done quickly.

To this the Democrat responded as follows The Frankfort Commonwealth is delighted with the speech of John Cochrane, and considers the Democrat not as sound as it ought to be, in that it condemns that speech Well, if the Commonwealth advises the arming of negroes against their masters, we don't: judge, very few Union men North or South will agree with the Commonwealth. He will have to look to Greeley & Co. for aid and comfort. The Administration does not agree with him; that's certain.

Lou. Democrat. Since that the Commonwealth has made one or two efforts at explanation, but spunkily refuses to take back its first article. So the matter stands.

The New York Tribune is of the opinfully two millions of dollars a day, or seven hundred millions of dollars per annum. It adds, however, when our armies shall have was nearly five years unemployed, making been fully recruited, clothed, and equipped a total of over twenty-one years in the service munitions, &c., it may be considerably remunitions, &c., it may be considerably reduced. The New York Herald has intelligence from Havana, that the Confederates intend going into the privateering business in the hitherto done. Their "navy" consists of 36 steamers, 16 schooners, 2 brigs, and 1 vessel classed as uncertain. In addition, they have 12 large steamers which might easily be adapted for warlike purposes, and 22 vessels which they are now using as transports. Their force of naval officers embraces 9 captains, 25 commanders, 24 lieutenants, 6 midshipmen, 7 surgeons, 3 paymasters, 1 chief engineer, 1 first assistant engineer, 2 navy agents, 1 colonel of marines, 1 lieutenant-colonel do., 1 major do., 2 captains and 3 second lieutenants do., making a total of 87 officers.

THE THIRD LOAN TAKEN.-It is anounced by telegraph that the Secretary of the Treasury had an interview with the Committee of the associated banks of New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, in the city of New York on Friday last, and arrangements were made for the taking of the third loan of fifty millions of dollars.

Colonel Joseph Cantrell, of Bourbon ounty, committed suicide on Sunday morning last, by hanging himself, in his own room. He has been for many years a worthy member of the Baptist Church. He was about eighty years of age.

We learn from the Louisville Journal that Deputy U.S. Marshal Neville, arrived at Louisville, on Saturday evening last, from Col. Harlan's camp at Lebanon, with Messrs Aylett Bedford, Marshall Godman, and Turner F. Fisher, of Bourbon county, in custody. They were arrested on their return from the Southern Confederacy.

The Louisville Journal says the only channel of uninterrupted communication at present between the loval and rebel States, is through Henderson, Ky. There is quite a local trade between Henderson and Hopkinsville, and the citizens of each place pass and re-pass daily without obstruction.

Ex-Senator Gwin and Gen. Benham, of California, who were on their parole of honor in New York, were re-arrested on Saturday by order of Secretary Seward, and sent to Fort Lafavette.

ARREST OF A REBEL RECRUITING OFFI-CER.-H. G. Fuller, supposed to be a rebel recruiting officer, was arrested at Lexington, Ky., on Tuesday, and taken to Cincinnati, and is to be sent to Fort Lafavette.

Tart Correspondence-The Secretary of State-Request to the State Governments --- Spicy Reading --- Governor Curtin's Reply to Mr. Seward.

The following is a copy of a communication received at the State Department from Governor Curtin in reply to Secretary Seward's

PENNSYLVANIA EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, Nov. 2, 1861. Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State,

Washington, D. C.: Sir: I received, a few days since, an envelope, apparently from the Department of State at Washington, inclosing a slip from a newspaper, purporting to be a copy of a letter from you to the Governor of New York. This mode of communicating advice by the Government of the United States to the State authorities is so unusual that I am, perhaps, not quite justified in assuming, as I do, that the communication is authentic.

I am glad to learn that the prospect of a disturbance of our amicable relations with foreign countries is now less serious than it has been at any period during the course of the insurrection. The duty of taking precautions against such disturbance is appropriate to the Government of the United States, and as, when the prospect was more serious, it was not thought fit to invite to the subject the attention of Congress, which had authority to make suitable provision, I do not understand how the fact that it is now less individual States, which have no such author-

What Congress has done or omitted you of of course must know, but it seems strange that general appropriations for military pur-poses render lawful the expense of fortifying Washington, Cincinnati, St. Louis, and other places, and yet that the Government should falter under an apprehension of want of authority when the question is of fortifying seaboard and lake ports.

The regular session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, as you may be aware, will not commence until more than a month after the next meeting of Congress. When you assure me that the prospect of disturbance i now less serious than it has been at any period since the insurrection began, I feel that your letter would not justify me in calling a specia session, and without action by the Legislature. I have less authority to act than the Executive of the United States, since the subject itself is within the scope of the General Government, and is not within that of a State

State Governments have recently (in conformity with the spirit of the constitutional provisions in regard to the militia) acted as agents of the General Government, and in raising volunteers for the general defense, and in clothing, arming, equipping and sup-plying them; but, even in this matter, not, it is believed, beyond their own people and ter-

Some of the points important for the maritime defense of Pennsylvania are situated in other States. It could not, of course, be expected that the authorities of the Common wealth should go into New Jersey or Delaware

If they are to be erected by the concurrent action of the several States immediately concerned, an agreement among them would be necessary to determine what should be done, and what proportion of the expense of doing it should be borne by each.

No such agreement could be lawfully made without the action of the several State Legislatures, and the Constitution expressly prohibits its being made at all without the a

To defray the expenses of the proposed fortifications, the States must, of course, resort to

The effect produced by the competition of a principal with his own agents, has already been illustrated by the embarrassments attending that system in the raising of volunteers, and in the procuring of clothing and other supplies for them.

To throw several of the States on the money market in direct competition with the large loans necessary to be made by the General Government, especially under the disyour letter may have on public credit, is an Fir the permanent cure of Fever and Ague experiment which must lead to embarrassments similar in kind, but probably even more

It is not doubted that provision for reimbursement would be made by law, for Congress, at its last session, promptly passed an act providing for the reimbursement of expenses incurred by the State in raising, &c. colunteers for the defense of the United

For that defense Pennsylvania has, in proportion to her population, furnished a larger and more effective force, and at a greatly less expense, than any other State, and her people now freely contributing their money to the loans of the United States. Under the above mentioned act of Congress, the Government of the United States, through its proper department, agreed to pay at once to the several States forty per cent. of their expenditures, as stated by their respective auprities; but this payment has thus far been withheld from Pennsylvania for the reasons as given, that she is so wealthy a State, and has expended so little money in proportion to the large material aid which she has furnished, that she can wait till a more convenient eason; in other words, that the economy of her Government, and the liberality of her So people, afford grounds for refusing to her the mpt though partial reimbursement which s made to other States, and which she would seem to have deserved not less but rather more than they.

In regard to the final settlement of these accounts, I observe that a communication has already been received (backed by a certificate of a person holding a high official position at Washington) setting forth the necessity that the agent for settling them should possess an intimate knowledge of all the laws and precedents applicable to such cases to be found in the past history of the Government, and adding that this knowledge and proper consultations with the accounting officers will be necessary to enable him to advise as to the best mode of making up and proving the accounts many of which must otherwise be rejected by the accounting officers.

These circumstances lead me to express the hope that the next provision by Congress for the reimbursement of the States may be so arranged that some faith may be reposed in the accounting departments of the several States, and that (at least in cases where the amount claimed is so small in comparison with the services rendered, and with what the would have cost the United States directly, a to exclude the possibility of extravagance of prodigality) the actual expenditures made by the States may be refunded to them without the necessity of resettling and revouching the accounts under such formidable condi-

On the whole, I suggest that the best mode of attaining the end which you propose, would be for the General Government itself to imown duties in this regard, in which it will receive, if necessary, the prompt, earnest, and aid of the Government and people of this Commonwealth.

If, however, this course should not be assented to, then I have to say that Pennsylvania, in any way that may be required, will give her last man and her last dollar to quell domestic treason or drive back foreign inva-sion, and will leave to a more quiet season the discussion and decision of the various ques tions that may arise from steps that have teen taken during the existing crisis.

In case, therefore, the General Government should persist in the plan which you suggest, I beg that the President will, as you propose, forthwith send proper agents of that Government to Harrisburg, to confer with me on the position and character of the necessary fortifications, so that no delay may occur in adopting proper measures for their construction. Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant, A. G. CURTIN.

THESE "Pills" never fail to cure all of the above named Fevers, and what is better, they also act as a preventive, if taken occasionally, or daily, while exposed to the infection. Hence the old adage. "An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure."

DR. MERWIN'S "Fever and Ague Pills" DIFFER FROM ALL OTHER Chill Medicines, in the following particulars:

lars: 1st. They never fail to perform a speedy and permanent cure.
2d. They are recommended only for one class of manent cure.

2d. They are recommended only for one class of diseases.

3d. They are agreecble and convenient to take, 4th. They contain no poisonous minerals, being purely vegetable.

5th. They do not impair the organic functions of the stomach or any part of the system.

6th. They require no other medicine to prepare the system for their reception, or afterwards to allay irritation.

7th. They are not a northern "catch-penny humbug," but are prepared by gentlemen that were born, reared and educated under the benign influence of southern institutions.

If Remember when you purchase these Pills, that You are not contributing means-for "Yankee Emigrant Aid Societies," or Sharp's riftes and bowie knives, for "Bleeding Kansas," as you many times have done, in buying northern articles.

We wish all to distinctly understand that this is a Southern Medicine, plants that grow in our Wood lands, on our Riverbanks, Bayous, and Lakes.

If Fas a special merit, we wish to call attention to the fact, that in using this Medicine you only take a few Pills. Is not this preferable to swallowing a pint of nauseous mixture which, at best, canonly produce the same result!

BEFORE TAKING THE AFTER TAKING THE ELIXIR. DR. WRIGHT'S

CELEBRATED REJUVENATING ELIXIR!!

Prepared on the strictest Pharmaceutical principles by one of the ablest Chemists of the age.

This is altogether a new medicine, the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, being an entirely new and abstract method of cure, irrespective of all the old and worn-out systems published by accomplished quacks to the suffering. Dr. Wright, well knowing the deception practised upon the uninitiated, felt it his duty at once to have this Elixir tested by the whole Medical Faculty, who, without even one dissenting voice, have given in their adherence to its perfect and undivided control over the whole physical man when his frame has been reduced, and when all other medicines known to the Pharmacopæia have been tried in vain. Long thought, years of patient investigation, and a nit desperandum determination, have crowned the Doctor's efforts, and he now offers the Elixir to suffering humanity as the only thing that can cure the following diseases—namely:
